

SUNSHINE COAST
GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Privacy Policy

Purpose

The Sunshine Coast Grammar School is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act. This statement outlines the privacy policy of the school and describes how the school uses and manages personal information provided to or collected by it. Sunshine Coast Grammar School may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to Sunshine Coast Grammar School's operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

Scope

The policy applies to School Council members, employers, employees, volunteers, parents/guardians and students, contractors, Parents & Friends Association, Sporting Groups and Clubs and people visiting the school site; and describes the type of information the school collects, how the information is handled, how and to whom the information is disclosed, and how the information may be accessed.

References

- Australian Privacy Principles
- Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)
- Child Protection Policy
- Disabilities Policy
- Notifiable Data Breaches Scheme
- PMSA Data Breach Response Plan
- Employment Collection Notice
- Volunteer/Contractor Collection Notice

Exception in Relation to Employee Records

Under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act), the Australian Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee record held by the employing entity. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to Sunshine Coast Grammar School's treatment of an employee record, where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between Sunshine Coast Grammar School and employee. This means the School does not have to grant you access to your employee records under the Privacy Act.

What kinds of personal information does the School collect and how does the School collect it?

The type of information Sunshine Coast Grammar School collects and holds includes (but is not limited to) personal information, including health and other sensitive information, about:

- students and parents and/or guardians ('Parents') before, during and after the course of a student's enrolment at the School:
 - name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth, gender, language background, previous school and religion;
 - parents' education, occupation and language background;
 - medical information (e.g. details of disability and/or allergies, absence notes, medical reports and names of doctors);
 - conduct and complaint records, or other behaviour notes, and school reports; information about referrals to government welfare agencies;

- counselling reports;
- health fund details and Medicare number;
- any court orders;
- volunteering information; and
- photos and videos at school events.
- job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors:
 - name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth, and religion;
 - information on job application;
 - professional development history;
 - salary and payment information, including superannuation details;
 - medical information (e.g. details of disability and/or allergies, and medical certificates);
 - complaint records and investigation reports;
 - leave details;
 - photos and videos at school events;
 - workplace surveillance information;
 - work emails and private emails (when using work email address) and Internet browsing history
- other people who come into contact with the School including name and contact details and any other information necessary for the particular contact with the school.

How is this Personal Information collected?

Sunshine Coast Grammar School collects Personal Information from Employees, Parents, Students and, in some circumstances, from third parties.

PMSA Schools collect Personal Information in various forms including paper and digital forms completed by Parents or Students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and phone calls, use of PMSA and PMSA School websites, interactions via public and directed digital applications and platforms including social media. On occasions people other than Parents and Students may provide Personal Information (refer to the next section, Personal Information provided by other people).

Collection of Sensitive Information & Health Information

PMSA and PMSA Schools will only collect Sensitive Information & Health Information with your consent where it is reasonably necessary for one or more of PMSA;s or the PMSA School functions or activities, unless one of the exceptions under the APPs applies (i.e. General Permitted Situation or a General Health Situation exists).

Cookies and IP addresses

When you access PMSA or PMSA School websites and apps, the PMSA or our third-party host or service provider may use software embedded in our website and apps (including JavaScript) and may place small data files (called cookies) on your device to collect information. This allows the server to deliver a page tailored to a particular user. Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user, but personal information that we store about you may be linked to the information stored in an obtained from cookies.

Cookies can be used by web servers to identify and track users as they navigate different pages on a website and identify users returning to a website. Cookies can also track your machine's IP address, analyse your browsing activity and can be used to aggregate traffic patterns across our sites. We use this information to improve our services and information. The information contained within cookies is information that the user has volunteered already or that the web server already has.

If you do not wish to receive cookies, you can modify your browser settings so that your computer does not accept them, however, this may affect how you view and access PMSA and PMSA School websites.

Social Media Platforms

You can participate in social media platforms used or hosted by PMSA and PMSA Schools including blogs, forums, wiki and apps. Social media platforms enable information sharing; however, the PMSA and PMSA Schools cannot be held responsible if you share Personal Information on these platforms that is subsequently used, misused or otherwise appropriated by others.

Links

PMSA and PMSA School websites and social media platforms may contain links to other websites and platforms operated by third parties over which we have no control. The PMSA and PMSA Schools make no representations or warranties in relation to the privacy practices of any third parties and are not responsible for the privacy policies or content of any third party websites.

Personal Information provided by other people

In some circumstances, PMSA and PMSA Schools may receive Personal Information and Sensitive Information (including Health Information) about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school. Further, PMSA or PMSA Schools may become privy to certain Personal Information and Sensitive Information about you, your personal or professional associations, in circumstances where this information has not actively been sought. This information will be treated as private, and unless required for either PMSA or a PMSA School's for its activities or functions, this information will be treated as unsolicited information and dealt with in accordance with the APPs.

Purpose of Collection

PMSA and PMSA Schools collect and hold Personal Information and Sensitive Information (including Health Information) for the primary purpose of exercising their functions and activities as educational institutions, and so they can fulfil their relevant duties and obligations. Personal Information may also be collected and held by PMSA for other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and which are reasonably expected by that person, or to which that person has consented.

PMSA and PMSA Schools will use Personal Information, including Sensitive Information, held about an individual for:

- The primary purpose of collection (i.e. the provision for educational and support services, to which by disclosing, you have consented);
- Secondary purposes that are directly related to the primary purpose of collection
- A Permitted General Health Situation;
- A General Health Situation;
- Any purpose that a reasonable person would expect or
- Any reasons or purpose the individual has consented.

Students and Parents

In relation to personal information of students and parents, Sunshine Coast Grammar School's primary purpose of collection is to enable Sunshine Coast Grammar School to provide schooling to students enrolled at the school, exercise its duty of care, and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in all the activities of the school. This includes satisfying the needs of parents, the needs of the students and the needs of Sunshine Coast Grammar School throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at the School.

The purposes for which Sunshine Coast Grammar School uses personal information of students and parents include:

- to keep parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines
- day-to-day administration of Sunshine Coast Grammar School
- looking after student's educational, social and medical wellbeing
- seeking donations and marketing for Sunshine Coast Grammar School
- to satisfy Sunshine Coast Grammar School's legal obligations and allow the school to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases where Sunshine Coast Grammar School requests personal information about a student or parent, if the information requested is not provided, Sunshine Coast Grammar School may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student or permit the student to take part in a particular activity.

On occasions, information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in School newsletters and magazines, on our intranet and on our website. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions.

The School will obtain permissions annually from the student's parent or guardian (and from the student if appropriate) if we would like to include such photographs or videos, or other identifying material, in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public such as on the internet.

Job Applicants, Staff Members and Contractors

In relation to personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors, Sunshine Coast Grammar School's primary purpose of collection is to assess and, if successful, to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which Sunshine Coast Grammar School uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- in administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be
- for insurance purposes
- seeking donations and marketing for the School
- to satisfy the School's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers

The School also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist Sunshine Coast Grammar School in its functions or conduct associated activities, such as support groups, Parents and Friends Association and Alumni Associations, to enable Sunshine Coast Grammar School and the volunteers to work together.

Marketing and Fundraising

Sunshine Coast Grammar School treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the school as an important part of ensuring that Sunshine Coast Grammar School continues to provide a quality learning environment in which both students and staff thrive. Personal information held by Sunshine Coast Grammar School may be disclosed to organisations that assist in the school's fundraising, for example, the Sunshine Coast Grammar School's Foundation or Alumni Association.

Video Surveillance

PMSA and PMSA Schools use video surveillance systems to monitor and record activity for a range of purposes including providing a safe and secure environment for Students, Employees and visitors, as well as protecting school buildings and assets by deterring incidences of theft and vandalism. Both during and after school hours.

Surveillance video recorded by cameras is securely stored and is only accessed and viewed by authorised people. Surveillance video is only retained for its useful life (typically 31 days) and is deleted/disposed of in accordance with secure information management procedures at each PMSA School unless required by law enforcement authorities to be preserved.

Surveillance video may be disclosed to third parties in accordance with the APPs. Circumstances under which video may be shown to a third party include:

- for law enforcement purposes (eg. Police);
- where a Permitted General Situation or Permitted Health Situation exists; and
- when otherwise required by law (eg. Court order)

Sensitive Information

Sensitive Information (including Health Information) will be used and disclosed by PMSA and PMSA Schools only for the purpose which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless and person agrees otherwise or the use or disclosure of the Sensitive Information is required by law, or an exception under the APPs applies.

Who might the School disclose Personal Information to and store your information with?

Sunshine Coast Grammar School may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual for educational, legal, administrative, marketing and support purposes. This may include to:

- another school or staff at another school where you are or seek to be enrolled
- government departments including for policy and funding purposes
- medical practitioners
- people providing educational, support and health services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, coaches, volunteers, counsellors and providers of learning and assessment tools
- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN)
- people providing administrative and financial services to Sunshine Coast Grammar School, including staff and contractors;
- recipients of School publications, such as newsletters and magazines
- students' parents or guardians of the individual student
- anyone you authorise Sunshine Coast Grammar School to disclose information to
- anyone to whom we are required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.

Sending and Storing Information Overseas

Sunshine Coast Grammar School may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, to facilitate a school exchange. However, Sunshine Coast Grammar School will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:

- obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied)
- otherwise, where Sunshine Coast Grammar School takes reasonable steps to ensure the recipient is complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.

Sunshine Coast Grammar School may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to Sunshine Coast Grammar School that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may be stored in the 'cloud' which means that it may reside on a cloud service provider's server which may be situated outside Australia.

Access and Correction of Personal Information

Under the Privacy Act, an individual has the right to seek and obtain access to any personal information which Sunshine Coast Grammar School holds about them and to advise Sunshine Coast Grammar School of any perceived inaccuracy. There are some exceptions to this right set out in the Act. Students will generally be able to access and update their personal information through their parents, but older students may seek access and correction themselves.

To make a request to access or to update any personal information Sunshine Coast Grammar School holds about you or your child, please contact the School Principal in writing (principal@scgs.qld.edu.au). Sunshine Coast Grammar School may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. Sunshine Coast Grammar School may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, Sunshine Coast Grammar School will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with access to that information, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

The School will take reasonable steps to ensure that any personal information is accurate, up to date, complete, relevant and not misleading.

Sensitive Information

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is required by law.

Who may PMSA and PMSA Schools disclose Personal Information to, and where is that information stored?

PMSA and PMSA Schools may disclose Personal Information (which may include Sensitive Information) held about an individual to:

- another school or staff at another school where a Student is or seeks to be enrolled;
- government departments including for policy and funding purposes’
- health practitioners;
- people providing educational, support and medical services to the PMSA School, including specialist visiting teachers, coaches, volunteers, health practitioners and providers of learning and assessment tools;
- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN);
- people providing administrative and financial services to the PMSA School or the PMSA, including Employees and contractors;
- recipients of PMSA School or PMSA publications, such as newsletters and magazine;
- the Parents (and in some circumstances Students);
- anyone you authorise the PMSA School to disclose information to; and
- anyone to whom the PMSA or PMSA Schools are required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including under child protection laws.

Sending and Storing Information Overseas

PMSA and PMSA Schools may disclose Personal Information (which may include Sensitive Information) about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, to facilitate a school exchange. However, the PMSA School will not send Personal Information about an individual outside Australia without:

- obtaining the consent of the individual; or
- taking reasonable steps to ensure the recipient is complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation

PMSA and PMSA Schools may use online or ‘cloud’ service providers to store Personal Information and to provide services to the school that involve the use of Personal Information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited Personal Information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This Personal Information may be stored on a cloud service provider which may be situated outside Australia on the condition that PMSA has taken reasonable steps in the circumstances to ensure that the overseas recipient complies with the APPs.

Consent and Rights of Access to the Personal Information of Students

Sunshine Coast Grammar School respects every parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education. Generally, Sunshine Coast Grammar School will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a student to the student's parents. Sunshine Coast Grammar School will treat consent given by parents as consent given on behalf of the student, and notice to parents will act as notice given to the student.

As mentioned above, parents may seek access to personal information held by Sunshine Coast Grammar School about them or their child by contacting the School Principal. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the Sunshine Coast Grammar School's duty of care to a student.

The School may, at its discretion, on the request of a student grant that student access to information held by Sunshine Coast Grammar School about them, or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the student and/or the student's personal circumstances warrant it.

Enquiries and Complaints

If you would like further information about the way Sunshine Coast Grammar School manages the personal information it holds, or wish to make a complaint about Sunshine Coast Grammar School's breach of the Australian Privacy Principles please contact the School Principal on principal@scgs.qld.edu.au. Sunshine Coast Grammar School will investigate any complaint and will notify you of the making of a decision in relation to your complaint as soon as is practicable after it has been made.

Management and Security of Personal Information

Sunshine Coast Grammar School's staff are required to respect the confidentiality of students' and parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals. Sunshine Coast Grammar School has in place steps to protect the personal information it holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

Data Breaches

It will be deemed that an 'eligible data breach' has occurred if:

- there has been unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, personal information about one or more individuals (the affected individuals)
- a reasonable person would conclude there is a likelihood of serious harm to any affected individuals as a result
- the information is lost in circumstances where:
 - unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, the information is likely to occur
 - assuming unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, the information was to occur, a reasonable person would conclude that it would be likely to result in serious harm to the affected individuals.

Serious harm may include serious physical, psychological, emotional, economic and financial harm, as well as serious harm to reputation.

What must the school do in the event of an 'eligible data breach'?

If Sunshine Coast Grammar School suspects that an eligible data breach has occurred, it will carry out a reasonable and expedient assessment/investigation within 30 days.

If such an assessment/investigation indicates there are reasonable grounds to believe an eligible data breach has occurred, then Sunshine Coast Grammar School will be required to lodge a statement to the Privacy Commissioner (Commissioner). Where practical to do so, the school entity will also notify the affected individuals. If it is not practicable to notify the affected individuals, Sunshine Coast Grammar School will publish a copy of the statement on its website, or publicise it in another manner.

Exception to notification obligation

An exception to the requirement to notify will exist if there is a data breach and immediate remedial action is taken, and as a result of that action:

- there is no authorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, the information
- there is no serious harm to affected individuals, and as a result of the remedial action, a reasonable person would conclude the breach is not likely to result in serious harm.

DEFINITIONS

“APPs” means the Australian Privacy Principles as outlined within the Privacy Act.

“Employee” refers to a person employed by the PMSA, or a PMSA School under the PMSA Enterprise Agreement, a Modern Award or an Individual Contract.

“General Health Situation” means any situation where disclosure of Personal, Sensitive and Health Information is necessary in order to provide a health service to an individual and the collection use and disclosure is required by law, or the information is collected in accordance with the rules established by health or medical bodies that deal with obligations that bind the relevant organisation.

“Health Information” means any information or opinion about the health or disability of an individual, the individual’s expressed wishes about the future provision of health services and a health service provided, currently or in the future, to an individual that is also Personal Information. Health information is a subtype of Sensitive Information, and includes Personal Information collected in the course of providing a health service.

“Parent” means the legal guardian of the Student and/or a person who exercises parental authority. Parental authority is defined in the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth) and means the duties, powers, responsibilities, which by law, parents have in relation to their children.

“Permitted General Situation” refers to any situation where in PMSA or PMSA School’s sole discretion, it is unreasonable or impracticable to obtain an individual’s consent and where PMSA or the PMSA School reasonably believes that the collection, use or disclosure of Personal (and Sensitive Information) is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious threat to the life, health or safety of any individual, or to public health or safety.

“Personal Information” means any information or an opinion about an identified individual or an individual who is reasonably identifiable whether the information is true or not, and whether the information is recorded in a material form or not, and regardless of its source. Personal information does not include information that has been de-identified so that the individual is no longer identifiable either from the information or from the information when combined with other information reasonably available to PMSA or the PMSA School.

“PMSA” is the Presbyterian & Methodist Schools Association which includes the PMSA Corporate Office, PMSA Schools, PMSA Early Learning Centres and other affiliated sites and organisations, unless expressly stipulated otherwise.

“PMSA School” means any of the schools operated and controlled by PMSA from time to time, including but not limited to Brisbane Boys’ College, Clayfield College, Somerville House and Sunshine Coast Grammar School. This also includes PMSA Early Learning Centres and other affiliated sites and organisations, unless expressly stipulated otherwise.

“Policy” means this Privacy Policy.

“Principal” refers to the person who has the executive authority for the PMSA School or the PMSA School Principal’s delegated representative.

“Privacy Act” means the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

“Sensitive Information” means information relating to a person’s racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record. It also includes Health Information and biometric information about an individual. Sensitive Information is a type of Personal Information that is afforded extra protection and must be treated with additional care and sensitivity.

“Student” means all prior, current, and prospective students of PMSA Schools.

APPENDIX 1

Standard Collection Notice

1. The School collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the School. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the School to provide schooling to students enrolled at the school, exercise its duty of care, engage in marketing/fundraising and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in all the activities of the School.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts, Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. We may ask you to provide medical reports about students from time to time.
5. The School may disclose personal and sensitive information for educational, legal, administrative, marketing and support purposes. This may include to:
 - other schools and teachers at those schools;
 - government departments (including for policy and funding purposes);
 - people providing educational, support and health services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, coaches, volunteers, and counsellors;
 - providers of learning and assessment tools;
 - assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN);
 - people providing administrative and financial services to the School;
 - anyone you authorise the School to disclose information to; and
 - anyone to whom the School is required or authorised by law, including child protection laws, to disclose the information.
6. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians.
7. The School may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the School that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's servers which may be situated outside Australia. Further information about the School's use of on online or 'cloud' service providers is contained in the School's Privacy Policy.
8. The School's Privacy Policy, accessible on the School's website, sets out how parents or students may seek access to and correction of their personal information which the School has collected and holds, and how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to a student, or where students have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.
9. The School's Privacy Policy also sets out how parents and students can make a complaint about a breach of the APPs and how the complaint will be handled.
10. The School may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.

11. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in School newsletters and magazines, on our intranet and on our website. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions. The School will obtain permissions annually from the student's parent or guardian (and from the student if appropriate) if we would like to include such photographs or videos, or other identifying material, in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public such as on the internet.
12. We may include students' and students' parents contact details in a class list and School directory. We will seek specific consent to publish your contact details in class lists and school directories.
13. If you provide the School with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School and why.

APPENDIX 2

Alumni Association Collection Notice

1. We may collect personal information about you from time to time. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable us to inform you about our activities and the activities of Sunshine Coast Grammar School and to keep alumni members informed about other members.
2. We must have the information referred to above to enable us to continue your membership of the Grammar Alumni.
3. As you know, from time to time we engage in fundraising activities. The information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you.
4. We may publish details about you in our Alumni Magazine and the School's website. If you do not agree to this, you must advise us now.
5. The School's Privacy Policy, accessible on the School's website, contains details of how you may seek access to and correction of your personal information which the School has collected and holds, and how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles.
6. The School may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the School that involve the use of personal information, such as email services. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's servers which may be situated outside Australia. Further information about the School's use of on online or 'cloud' service providers is contained in the School's Privacy Policy.
7. If you provide us with the personal information of others, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School and why.

APPENDIX 3

Employment Collection Notice

1. In applying for this position, you will be providing Sunshine Coast Grammar School with personal information. We can be contacted at 372 Mons Road, Forest Glen, Qld, 4556, employment@scgs.qld.edu.au, or (07) 5445 4444.
2. If you provide us with personal information, for example, your name and address or information contained on your resume, we will collect the information in order to assess your application for employment. We may keep this information on file if your application is unsuccessful in case another position becomes available.
3. The School's Privacy Policy, accessible on the School's website, contains details of how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how you may seek access to and correction of your personal information which the School has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.
4. We will not disclose this information to a third party without your consent unless otherwise permitted.
5. We are required to collect information regarding whether you are or have been the subject of an Apprehended Violence Order and certain criminal offences under Child Protection laws.
6. The School may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the School that involve the use of personal information, such as email services. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's servers which may be situated outside Australia. Further information about the School's use of on online or 'cloud' service providers is contained in the School's Privacy Policy.
7. If you provide us with the personal information of others, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School and why.

APPENDIX 4

Contractor/Volunteer Collection Notice

1. In offering, applying or agreeing to provide services to the School, you will be providing Sunshine Coast Grammar School with personal information. We can be contacted at 372 Mons Road, Forest Glen, Qld, 4556, hr@scgs.qld.edu.au, or (07) 5445 4444.
2. If you provide us with personal information, for example your name and address or information contained on your resume, we will collect the information in order to assess your application. We may also make notes and prepare a confidential report in respect of your application.
3. You agree that we may store this information for a period up to seven years from when you cease providing services to Sunshine Coast Grammar School.
4. The School's Privacy Policy, accessible on the School's website, contains details of how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how you may seek access to and correction of your personal information which the School has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.
5. We will not disclose this information to a third party without your consent unless otherwise permitted to.
6. We are required to collect information regarding whether you are or have been the subject of an Apprehended Violence Order and certain criminal offences under Child Protection law.
7. The School may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the School that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's servers which may be situated outside Australia. Further information about the School's use of on online or 'cloud' service providers is contained in the School's Privacy Policy.
8. If you provide us with the personal information of others, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School and why.